NORTH ATLANTIC FLEET PREPARING TO DEPART

BUT IT WILL PROBABLY BE THE MIDDLE OF NEXT WEEK BE-FORE ALL OF THE VESSELS
ARE READY TO START NORTH.

The vessels of the combined North Atlantic fleet are preparing to depart from Pensacola and from present indications they will leave about the middle of next week. The statement has been made that the ships will leave Monday, but from reliable sources it is learned that they will not depart before Wednesday, or probably as late as Thursday or Friday.

Yesterday only small liberty parties were allowed ashore. These had cards signed by the commanding officers of the various ships, and the police and county authorities have instructions to arrest all men in uniform who could not present these cards. Only first-class men are given these cards.

It is stated that there are over a hundred liberty breakers and stragglers in the city and the cutting off of liberty parties is in order to give the officers an opportunity to pick up this class of men.

The naval branch of the Y. M. C. A. was crowded Thursday night with the men who were given shore liberty, and although there were not so many ashore last night, the headquarters were well filled. Large bundles of magazines, which had been sent to the Y. M. C. A. by citizens of Pensacola were sent out to the ships yesterday and will furnish good reading matter for the men on the vessels, who have not the opportunity to come ashore. They were gladly received by the men and highly appreciated.

The battleship Kentucky, which has been on the range for several days returned to port yesterday afternoon. She made a fine record with her large calibre guns, and the men state that so far none of the vessels have excelled them in this class of work.

The Massachusetts went out on the range yesterday morning and began practice in torpedo firing. She is about the first of the vessels to engage in this class of work.

Best Cough Medicine for Children.

When you buy a cough medicine for small children you want one in which you can place implicit confidence. You want one that is unquestionably harmless. You want one that is pleasant to take. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy meets all of these conditions. There is nothing so good for the coughs and colds incident to childhood. For sale by all druggists.

TWO GAMES OF BASEBALL SUNDAY

DOUBLE-HEADER TO BE PULLED OFF AT PALMETTO BEACH
SUNDAY AFTERNOON.

Two games of baseball are to be played at Palmetto Beach Sunday afternoon. The first game, which will be between the Orioles and the Maine team, will be called at 1 o'clock, and the second, between the Pensacolas and Iowa boys will commence immediately after the completion of the first, or about 3 o'clock.

These will be the last games between local teams and the battleship boys, and much interest is being shown in the final outcome of the series. The line-up of the Iowa and Pensacolas will be as follows:

Iowa—Stavemeyer, catcher; Lorms, pitcher; Terry, first base; Clarke, second base; T. Lyons, third base; Barnes, short stop; McGin, left field; D. Lyons, center field; Garza, right field.

BLUEJACKETS WILL REMAIN TO TESTIFY IN THE LEE CASE.

The six bluejackets, who were witnesses before the coroner's jury in the murder case of Walter L. Mann, who is charged with being killed by Leo Lee, a bluejacket on the battleship Alabama, will be detained in Pensacola as witnesses in this case, which is to be heard before Judge Beggs, of the criminal court, at an early date. The men will remain here until after the trial and then proceed to whatever point their ships may be.

The officers and men of the Alabama have employed C. Moreno Jones to defend Lee.

There were no further developments in the case yesterday. Lee was yesterday informed of the verdict of the jury, but was not affected in the least.

An Enjoyable Concert.

The regular concert, given by Chaffers' Band, occurred last night on the lawn in front of Hotel Escambia, and was attended by a large number of persons. The band, under the direction of Prof. Chaffers, rendered some excellent music, the program including a number of very difficult pieces. The free concerts, given by the organization have attracted much attention and are becoming more popular each week.

Colored Man Fell Dead.

William Lassiter, colored, fell dead last night about 9:30 o'clock on Hayne street, just north of the gas works, death being due to heart disease. Death occurred while he was walking south towards the city. Judge Bellinger viewed the remains.

SCANDINAVIAN DAY AT THE FAIR

BIG MEN WILL SPEAK AND THOU.
SANDS FROM ALL PARTS OF THE COUNTRY WILL AT-TEND EXERCISES.

Portland, April 28.—July 29, which has been set aside as Scandinavian Day at the Lewis and Clark Exposition, will be one of the biggest days at the Western World's Fair. Arrangements already completed provide for a celebration that will be unique in the history of expositions. Thousands of Scandinavians from all parts of the United States will rally in Portland.

The feature of the afternoon exercises on July 29 will be speeches by prominent Scandinavian-Americans, among them probably will be Jacob A. Riis, the New York newspaper man and lecturer, and author of "How the Other Half Lives," and of "The Making of an American," a biography of President Roosevelt which has attracted wide attention on account of the writer's well-known closeness to the president. Hon. Knute Nelson, formerly governor of Minnesota, and now United States senator from that state, and Ex-Governor John Lind, of the same state, are also expected to make addresses.

In the evening of Scandinavian Day there will be a great musical festival in the Auditorium at the exposition, in which prominent singing societies from all over the Pacific northwest will take part. Many excursions of Scandinavians are being arranged. A committee of seventeen has charge of the arrangements for Scandinavian Day. As all the Scandinavian people will take part in the celebration, the committee is composed of five Danes, five Norwegians, five Swedes and two Finns.

"I have been subjected to sciatic rheumatism for years," says E. H. Waldron, of Wilton Junction, Iowa. "My joints were stiff and gave me much pain and discomfort. My joints would crack when I straightened up. I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm and have been thoroughly cured. Have not had a pain or ache from the old trouble for many months. It is certainly a most wonderful liniment." For sale by all druggists.

APRIL WEDDING AT FLORALA, ALA.

The Florida News of Wednesday says: On last evening at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. S. E. Smith, occurred the wedding of Miss Esther Smith and Mr. A. G. Baldwin. It was a very pretty affair and all arrangements were very gracefully carried out. Miss Prestwood, of Andalusia, presided at the piano and the strains of Mendelssohn's time honored wedding march, the bridal party passed from the reception room into the handsomely decorated parlor.

The following was the order of march: Miss Kirksey with Mr. Avant, Miss Ewing with Mr. McCall, Mr. Will Ewing with Miss Page, then came the groom with his best man, Mr. Lurie, who awaited the bride in the alcove provided for the ceremony. The bride, leaning upon the arm of her sister, Miss Reffe Smith, the maid of honor, came next. The whole party arranged themselves into a pretty group, and soon came the sound of the voice of Rev. Mr. Bennett, who performed the beautiful marriage ceremony of the Baptist church, in an impressive manner.

As soon as the happy couple were made husband and wife, their friends gathered around them to shower best wishes for a life of continued happiness.

The bride was favored with many handsome presents that attest the regard of her many friends. Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin will reside at the residence of Mrs. S. E. Smith and go to housekeeping in the fall.

For a Week Digestion.

No medicine can replace food but Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will help you to digest your food. It is not the quantity of food taken that gives strength and vigor to the system, but the amount digested and assimilated. If troubled with a weak digestion, don't fail to give these Tablets a trial. Thousands have been benefited by their use. They only cost a quarter. For sale by all druggists.
